

The National Whig
MONDAY EVENING, MAY 24, 1847.
FOR PRESIDENT, IN 1848,
MAJOR GENERAL
ZACHARY TAYLOR,
OF LOUISIANA,
THE HERO
OF
PALO ALTO, RESACA DE LA PALMA, MONTEREY,
And Buena Vista.
Subject to the decision of the Whig National Convention.

Mr. T. M. Kimber is no longer an Agent for the National Whig.

NOTICE.—Persons indebted to the National Whig for advertisements, are respectfully requested to make payment either to the Proprietor in person, or to Mr.
G. L. Gilchrist, who is our sole Agent, and whose receipts alone will be recognized by us as valid.

We learn from a source not to be doubted, that within a few days past a Roman Catholic gentlemen of the highest respectability received a note from the head of one of the Departments, assuring him that he should certainly receive the appointment of Inspector of the Penitentiary, for which he was a candidate, and requesting him to wait upon the President. The visit was paid, and a non-committal answer received. Subsequently, however, the appointment was conferred on a physician, long remarkable for his noisy devotedness to the dominant party, probably because "there are already too many Catholics in office." Are Roman Catholics worse than other citizens?

Some of our brethren think we speak too plainly, and use terms, such as "Tory," &c., which might be dispensed with to advantage. We address ourselves to the masses, and call things by their right names. Away with your holiday phrases, when public liberty is at stake. We would as soon think of making a speech on the hustings in Hebrew, as of dealing out to the well meaning and honest yeomanry of the land the wire-drawn distinctions of political speculators. The Tories are, and always have been, the advocates of Royal and Executive patronage and prerogative, in opposition to the rights of the tax-paying people. Then why not give their true name? Heaven knows, their hiring press have lost no opportunity of imposing on the credulous and unreflecting, by names which, however offensive, have the quality of attracting attention and temporary belief. If people will do naughty things they must be told of it, and in terms not to be misunderstood.

It is stated that the correspondent of the Baltimore Sun and Philadelphia Ledger was first introduced to the President by a member of the United States Senate from Pennsylvania, with the view of obtaining a commission in the army. The commission has not been obtained, but the correspondent is busy in carrying on hostilities against the people in the form of communications through the neutral and party press, more useful to his employers here than anywhere else.

Query. Does he receive pay?

Cox. Brockton.—This compound of vain-boasting has written a letter to John R. Thompson, of New Jersey, the would-be Tory Governor thereof, that he is command General Kearney, and that Kearney submitted to his authority in the two battles of January last in California, &c. &c. If it be true that Kearney did so submit, it shows how high an estimate he placed upon his country's cause at the perilous moment, when a resistance to the usurped power of his inferior might endanger the success of our arms. The truth is, there is not a more arrogant and ignorant officer in the naval service than this same Stockton. He is pure-proud, and devoid of all nobleness of purpose—two qualities that all ways go together. We hope the time will come when this politician Post-Captain will get his deserts. The interests of the country require his absence from the navy, and there is not a man who will not rejoice at his dismissal from service. He has supported by his wealth, Van Buren, Harrison, Tyler, and Polk, all in turn. Taylor will not need it, thank God; and we trust the old Hero will take care he shall not any longer tarnish the cloth he now wears.

Marshal Soult's Opinion OF GENERAL TAYLOR.
"Voila un Soldat."

We take pleasure in laying before our readers the following extract of a letter from Paris, written by that very able journalist, Mr. Bennett, of the New York Herald, with a view of showing what Marshal Soult thinks of the old Thunderer of Buena Vista, and what Europeans think of the racially government that left him at Agua Nueva, to be destroyed by Santa Ana.

But to return to General Taylor, and the war on the Rio Grande. The accounts by the last steamer had left that gallant man victor, it is true, in the field, but still surrounded and enclosed by the Mexicans in such a way as to leave his position critical. Every American here believed that he would overcome his difficulties, and his despatches satisfied that belief; but all unite in censuring the imbecility and injustice of the American government—both President and Congress—in conspiring to place him in that unequal and untoward position.
We are still anxious for the next news about Vera Cruz—and until that comes we will be pouring over the last accounts, to extract comfort from their contents.

Among military men, General Taylor is considered one of the greatest generals of the age. It is asserted, without hesitation, that he has performed as much with the means at his command, as ever Napoleon or Wellington did. I was informed this morning by a gentleman, formerly a distinguished diplomatist in Europe, that Marshal Soult, on reading the recent news, and particularly Gen. Taylor's despatches, declared in emphatic language, "Voila un soldat"—as much as to say, "a great general"— a very good general. These are private opinions naturally coming from competent judges, but such ideas are never allowed to influence the press, or general thought, which is invariably hostile to American affairs.

The treatment of General Taylor by his own government, in giving the chief command to another, and in taking from him his best troops, is very much blamed here by every American. On this point there is no division of opinion.

I trust that before this can reach New York every anticipation that we now entertain of General Taylor will have come out right and uppermost.
His talents, his moderation, his wisdom, his modesty, the simple dignity of his despatches, and his conduct in the field and in the council, have already created in Europe a greater name for American capacity and power than any event since the revolution or the deeds of Washington.

MR. POLK, AND NOT MR. TYLER, THE REAL AUTHOR OF THE MEX-ICAN WAR, MR. BENTON TO THE CONTRARY NOTWITHSTANDING.

The treaty of annexation was rejected, but annotation in another form was still presented. A resolution for the admission of Texas, as a State, passed the House of Representatives; an additional and alternative resolution was added in the Senate, to appoint commissioners to negotiate for admission, and to conciliate, and reconcile Mexico, and thereby prevent the annexation from bringing on war. The expiring Administration of Mr. Tyler snatched the alternative from the President elect—hurried off the House resolution by a midnight messenger—slammed the door of conciliation in the face of Mexico —and inflamed her pride and resentment to the high degree. From that time forth every thing breathed war between the two countries, which broke out the ensuing year. [Benton's St. Louis Speech.]

When the Texas Resolutions passed Congress in February, 1845, Mr. Polk was already in the city.
Mr. Tyler, immediately upon their passage and approval, called on the President elect in person, and many were the consultations the two Chief Magistrates held together upon the policy to be pursued in relation to Texas. After due deliberation, it was decided that Mr. Tyler should execute the Resolutions absolutely admitting Texas into the Union as a State, and reject the alternative resolution of negotiation. This act received Mr. Polk's full and free consent and approval. Scarcely had the messenger who was despatched to Texas by Mr. Tyler in execution of the Resolution of Admission, turned his back, when Mr. Polk assumed the Magisterial Purple, and at once gave his official sanction to the act of Mr. Tyler, by proceeding to take the next necessary step consequent upon the choice of the House step of annexation. And throughout the whole correspondence between this Government and that of Texas there is not the least sign or shadow of Mr.
Polk's disapprobation of Mr. Tyler's act.

The statement we have here made Mr. Polk will not dare to deny, for if he does, there are parties to the whole transaction who are ready to confront him with the proof of the truth of what is here asserted.

This much is deemed necessary, at the present moment, to show that Mr. Benton has misrepresented the transaction in question—whether intentionally or not, we are not prepared to prove; but the probabilities are strong that he knew of the whole truth of the affair and that the statement which he has put forth in his St. Louis Speech is designed to shield Mr. Polk from the charge of having plunged the nation into the Mexican war by assuming the belligerent relations existing between Texas and Mexico at the time Texas was taken into the Union.
It would be doing Mr. Benton injustice, we think, to plead for him ignorance of the consultations between Mr. Tyler and Mr. Polk, and Mr. Polk's choice of the House Resolution. We are the last to attribute ignorance to prominent statesmen and public men. Better far, for their reputation to plead necessity for their act than ignorance, for the people, their masters, can then deal with them as responsible agents and make them atone for their crimes and offenses.

But the whole of Mr. Benton's speech is an apology for Mr. Polk's wicked administration of the government, as we shall show in detail in to-mor-row's paper, and being a speech of this character, it is necessarily full of misrepresentations, subtleties; and vain-boasting. We have exposed one of his misrepresentations to-day. The work will be continued.

SENATOR MANOU.—We grieve to hear that this excellent gentleman and sound statesman is confined to his chamber, at his residence in North Carolina, by a severe attack of bronchitis.

The Boston Post says that Gen. Taylor never went into action at the head of white columns; when it is notorious that nine-tenths of the volunteers with whom he has won his glorious victories are Whites to the back bone.
Oh, Mr. Greene—Mr. Greene, oh!

General Taylor nominated in the Bardston District. The Whig delegates of the Fifth Congressional District, who met in Convention at Bar-dstown on the 10th instant, and nominated Mr. Thompson for Congress, adopted the following resolution by acclamation.

Resolved, That this convention believe General Zachary Taylor to be eminently qualified to preside as Chief Magistrate over the destinies of our Republic, and now nominate him for President in 1848.

The Bardston Gazette says that the resolution was received with a unanimous shout.

Indian Fight. About the 1st of the present month a fight took place between the Oto and Sioux Indians. Two of the Otos had been overtaken on a hunt by the Sioux and four were scalped. A squaw escaped and told the tale, whereupon the Oto went on a war party and in pursuit and found the Sioux in a swamp of grass to which they set fire, and as the Sioux fled from the flames they were scorched and as many as eight fared this fate and were killed.

From Yucatan. Laguna has been taken possession of by the U. S. brig Porpoise, without resistance, says the New Orleans Bulletin of the 15th instant.

We have seen a letter dated Tobacco, 18th April, which says, that in consequence of the boats of the U. S. steamer McLean having been fired upon, and two or three of the crew wounded, the steamer went up to Juanita, a small town on the river, and demanded all the arms, which having been obtained, she returned to the mouth again.

We should rejoice to see the day, says the last Richmond Whig, when all men of all parties would frown down the iniquitous and corrupting practice of proscription for opinion's sake—a practice which fills the public offices with incompetent and dishonest agents, who make politics a trade, and who are always in market. The great body of the people, of both parties, have a direct interest in putting down this odious system and those who practice it. Elect General Taylor and it will be done.

DO YOU HEAR THIS, MR. POLK? On Monday, the 17th inst., a large and enthusiastic meeting was held in Columbia—the very town whence you were dragged to occupy the White House—to consider the question of the next Presidency. What do you think the meeting did? They did—not nominate you, their old townsman. They unanimously and with the wildest enthusiasm resolved that they would vote for the old Thunderer of Buena Vista, Gen. Zachary Taylor, for their next Chief Magistrate. When even your own household deserts you, is it not time to give over persecuting the man whom God has raised up to succeed you?

A homicide in Cincinnati and a robbery in Louisville constitute the burden of domestic news received by the last mail from those cities.

AWFUL SHIPWRECK.—The brig Exmouth from London for Quebec was driven ashore in a heavy gale on Tuesday night the 27th of April upon the west coast of the Isle of Lays near the west coast of Scotland. All on board perished but three seamen.
She had 240 emigrants chiefly small farmers with their families bound to Canada. Out of the whole number there were only 60 males—the rest females and children. The vessel was dashed to pieces among the rocks by the fury of the surf.

Gen. Brown, the Whig candidate for Governor of Tennessee, has declared for Gen. Taylor, first and last—and his march through the State is a triumphal one. Gov. Brown, his Tory opponent, has intimated that he will go for the old Hero, if—if—if—so and so. Nobody, even of his own party, stops to listen to him.

John Slidell. The New Orleans Delta comes to the rescue of John Slidell, from the charge that he was intriguing last winter to bring the whole of the leaders of the party in power over to General Taylor as their nominee for the Presidency. The Delta can save his breath.
Every body knows that such was the case, and John is only angry that he was defeated before hand in his scheme to commit the leaders of his own party to a Whig nominee. We predict, nevertheless, that John will support the Old Hero as warmly as he supported Mr.
Polk; any port in a storm is Senor Don John's maxim.

Another Battle. It was rumored in New Orleans on the 14th instant that Gen. Taylor had fought and gained another battle. We should not be surprised if the rumor prove true. If he has fought one—he has gained it, that's certain!

The Cincinnati Enquirer, a Tory paper in the confidence of President Polk, boldly asserts that no demand of territory has ever been made of Mexico by the Administration, as the condition of peace!
Treature up this abominable lie for future use. The toils are gradually drawing round the Administration—tools of its own making. Let us all pull steadily together and we shall yet live to see an end put to lying in high places.

A volunteer at New Orleans made the following piquant speech to the people on the 15th inst. and we commend into the especial attention of Mr. Polk:

"But Bonnyvister was the field where I extinguished myself. I fought like a man, gentlemen—I did. I seen old Zach on that d—old yaller charger of his, and if the Mexicans had a touched a hair of his head we'd a massacred every mother's son on 'em. That old man can't be tetchy by any thing made in Mexico, or in the United States either with Mister Polk and the Democratic party to boot; if he can, you may have my head for a football."

Five sixths of the Catholics in the U.
States voted for President Polk. And now in the third year of his Presidency, he proposes to confiscate the gold and silver of the Catholic church in Mexico as a means of subjugating that country!

The Tories in Tibbatts District in Kentucky have selected Gen. Lucius Desha to run on their ticket.

The Louisville Journal says that, judging from her accounts it has seen of the Columbia, Tennessee, meeting to nominate General Taylor for the Presidency, it must have been heard three miles off. It was heard farther than that. It was heard by Mr. Polk in the White House!

Reinforcements for Gen. Scott. We learn says the New Orleans Bulletin of the 15th instant, that a large portion of the new levies that were intended for General Scott, have been ordered to join General Scott, and that only three infantry regiments, (one of which is the 16th) and the 3d Dragoons will be sent to General Taylor.

The Baltimore Patriot thinks that Mr.
Polk continues the war because he is a weak man. They who know him intimately say, it is because he is a bad man. We think if our brethren of the press would always weigh Mr. Polk's actions in the balance of knavery, they would never fail to get at their true estimate.

The reports still prevailed at Vera Cruz at last dates that a deputation had been sent to General Scott to offer him possession of the capital. There was a good deal of sickness at Vera Cruz, and it was increasing. Some cases of fever had occurred.

SECOND WARD.
FOR THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN.
John Wilson.
FOR THE COMMON COUNCIL.
Messrs. James F. Haliday, John A. Blake, Lewis Johnson.

The above gentlemen are presented of the voters of the Second Ward to represent them in the Board of Aldermen and Common Council, (which election takes place on Monday week next, June 1st,) who, if elected, we are confident will faithfully look to the interests of their constituents.

Zachary Taylor. First in war, first in peace, first in the hearts of his country.

James Knox Polk. First in making a war, first in breaking a peace, and first in the hearts of the office holders.

The slaves of Mr. Morgan Smith, of Lowndes county, Miss., lately made up fifty dollars among themselves, to be sent to Ireland to relieve the starving poor, so far as that sum would extend! And yet Mr. Polk only gave the paltry sum of $50 for the same object!

Governor Dana of Maine in his maiden message talks very learnedly about the slave question in connection with the newly conquered territory of Mexico, and winds up by telling the South, that its peculiar institution will not be permitted by Maine to be fastened upon the new conquest. Mr. Dana is a Democrat. We do not know whether he be a Polk Tory or not.

The New Orleans people had a most exciting time of it with their illumination in honor of the war, and its victories last Saturday night a week ago. The Crescent city must have shone like a rainbow fallen upon earth!

Atocha is at Cincinnati.

Two Michigan companies passed thro' Cincinnati on the 20th instant for the seat of war.

The volunteers who have arrived at N.
Orleans are generally in wretched health and very ragged. They will remember James K.
Polk 'in the day of his trial, even in the day when he shall come to be weighed in the balances.'

American arms have achieved eighteen victories in Mexico. They are the precursors of the grand victory which American votes will achieve in 1848 over the author of the war, Mr. James Knox Polk.

The Charleston Mercury speaks of the rash head that governs the Union. Heads, sir, heads!

George Brown, of Beverley, Mass., late U. S. Commissioner to the Sandwich Islands, and his son, are supposed to have been lost in the brig Wm. Nelson, which sailed from Ho-lulu, August 5th last, for Manila and Canton, and have not been heard of, although Manila dates of February 11th have been received.

POST OFFICE REFORM.—The people of Boston are moving in mass for Post Office reform.
They go for 2 cents postage for all distances, prepayment by stamps, free delivery, no franking and no monopoly. We are with you gentlemen, heart and hand, with this addition, no postage on newspapers, and the purchase by the government of the Magnetic Telegraph and the expense of the transmission of intelligence or message by this instrument to be reduced to 2 cents per hundred words for all distances, prepayment of the same and free delivery. We shall refer to this subject again and in the mean time ask the public press every where to take it up and we will republish here their thoughts upon it.

The Morning Courier, says the Louisville Journal of the 21st instant, learns from good authority that Gen. Wm. O. Butler has avowed himself in favor of Zachary Taylor for the next Presidency. So the Locooco party of this State has lost General Butler and Judge French. How many more such men has it got to lose?

THE PUBLIC CREDITORS now-a-days are treated by the government with great injustice.
The Sub-Treasury Law is daily violated not only by the disbursing agents of the government out of Washington but by them in Washington. Nay, it is broken every day by Mr.
Walker himself. The public creditor in New Orleans is now compelled to take drafts on the North when the law requires he should be paid in gold or silver or Treasury notes. Recently a paymaster received in this city checks on the North for over one million of dollars and he deposited them with Corcoran & Riggs, contrary to the Sub Treasury Law, and Corcoran & Riggs to meet their payment pushed into market enough of their loan and paid these checks into the Treasury on account of their loan. All this is in contravention of the Law and yet Mr. Walker countenances it—nay advises it.

The Telegraph.—As if this engine was not sufficiently monopolizing already by the exorbitant prices charged for the transmission of intelligence and correspondence, we see it stated that Mr. Kendall is engaged in getting up a monopoly to furnish certain newspapers only with news in advance of all other newspapers. We thought that time and adversity had taught Mr. K. some wisdom and still think so, and will therefore wait to see if it can possibly be true that he is occupied with any such schemes as that now ascribed to him, before we remark further on the subject. We should sooner expect to hear that he was attempting to place news at the disposition of every press without charge, but we shall see.

The last news from Paris is that gray hair and gray curls are all the rage—the whole batch of browns, blacks, chestnuts, auburns, goldens, sandies, and flaxens, being voted "misfortunes of nature." This move is a move backward, as it is calculated to bring forward the middle age.

Nine hundred Dutch arrived in Baltimore last Saturday from Rotterdam and Bremen.
